My Dear

I feel exceedingly obliged to you for having had the goodness to read through my Life of Lord Illiesmore in its present incorrect & defective state.
I hope sincerely that it will neither supersede nor delay your Life of him - for which I am conscious there must still be ample space. With me he is one of 150 and I have been able to bestow upon him a very inadequate degree of labor.

I shall be charmed to introduce an acknowledgment to Lord
Frances Egerton.

The more numerous
your corrections and hints are I shall be the better pleased.

With respect to Shenners conduct & character
I shall reconsider

the whole - with your remarks. I am sure Sir J. Coke has never been a favorite of mine and I shall be surprised if I have given him much trouble.

I should have been glad to have said more of Plummer's private habits - but I do not think I had the materials.

I am ashamed to think of the trouble

you have in getting
copies of Egerton M. S. S.
with which I am to embellish my life of him
made for me

There is no hurry
whatever about returning my M. S. S.
as I am still a long way from the end of Shapthorn.

Believe me

Your obliged & grateful

Campbell
